Feb. 16 Finding Wellness- Building A Better Life #4202

4 Hrs. (1pm-5pm)

Instructor(s): Deputy Alexis Brown

Registration Deadline: 2/9/27

This course is designed to teach law enforcement professionals the importance of physical, mental, emotional, and social wellness, and to break down the stigma of mental health in the law enforcement profession. This course is designed to help law enforcement professionals explore the risk factors that impact mental health, learn to recognize conditions and burnout, and identify practical wellness strategies for the demands of the job. This course also addresses how to recognize the signs of suicidal ideation and how to build a suicide prevention plan. Learners will explore how to practice resilience and overcome barriers to become more able to withstand the demands of their lives and chosen careers.

Feb. 18-19 Interpersonal Communication in Jail Setting (Intermediate) 3503

16 Hrs. (8am-5pm)

Instructor(s): Deputy Shane Threet

Registration Deadline: 2/11/27

This course is designed to provide the county corrections officer with an understanding of basic communication skills and the ability to use them. Management of inmate population within a correctional setting has changed in recent years. In the past, staff have been asked to put themselves on the line without all the knowledge and skills they really needed. Staff have had to cope with ever increasing legal, physical, and emotional demands. With the recent development of more in-depth mental health training and de-escalation skills among staff, learning the principles of interpersonal communication is more important than ever. This course is one of the Intermediate Core courses required by TCOLE to receive the Intermediate Certification as a County Corrections Officer.

MARCH 2027

Mar. 1-5 Jail Mental Health Officer #5900

40 Hrs. (8am-5pm)

Instructor(s): Lt. Kevin Payne/Cpl. Keisha Smitherman/Cpl. Shane Threet

Class Size - 24

Registration Deadline: 2/22/27

Course Goal: Upon successful completion of this course, participants will be able to relate key mental health issues to their daily operations within a jail setting.

Note: This course is not intended to replace medical personnel advice. The content in this course is presented for informational purposes. Always contact a medical professional or other certified mental health professional for further assistance and guidance.

Target Audience: Any individual who works in a jail setting.

Prerequisites:

- Completion of Course #1120 - 2018 Basic County Correction Course, OR
- Course #4900 - Mental Health for Jailers, OR
- Course #1850 - 40 HR. Crisis Intervention, OR
- Course #3843 - CIT Update.

Recommended Training: Interpersonal Communications in the Correctional Setting Course #3503, Texas Commission on Law Enforcement

Testing/Certification

The instructor will use oral questioning during the presentation of each module to assess participants' mastery of the material. Problem areas identified during questioning will be reviewed in further detail. The use of scenarios and course activities throughout the course are used to assess participant understanding and application of knowledge and skills obtained throughout the training. Feedback and discussion of responses further allows the instructor to assess mastery of the material.

Registration and Attendance

Attendance is crucial to receive credit for this course. All participants must complete a registration form at the beginning of the course, sign the attendance roster for each day of the course, and complete the evaluation at the end of the course in order to receive a certificate of completion.
